'Historic' April 11 UFO broadcast draws over 3 million listeners

Hailed as one of the most important UFO broadcasts ever, witnesses who have never appeared live together came forward on a combined edition of Behind the Paranormal with Paul & Ben Eno and KAPS Paranormal on CBS Radio April 11 to talk about the shocking UFO landings and other events in the area of Rendlesham Forest and the Bentwaters-Woodbridge air base in England in December 1980. Witnesses included retired Col. Charles Halt all the way to former airmen and Air Force police officers who saw UFOs and chased strange lights through the forest.

Also with us were legendary UFO researchers Bill Birnes of the History Channel's "UFO Hunters" and Left at East Gate author Peter Robbins. Between the CBS New Sky Radio broadcast, Internet listeners on Para-X Radio and other online venues, and podcast downloads, listenership has been estimated at over 3 million. Podcasts are available at www.behindtheparanormal.com.

A sequel is being discussed that might involve television. Watch for more information.
