Weekly News from Paul & Ben Eno

The world-famous father-son paranormal team

Co-hosts of "Behind the Paranormal" on CBS New Sky Radio

July 3, 2010

The paranormal in American history features on this week's shows

In honor of Canada Day on July 1 and American Independence Day on July 4, both editions of Behind the Paranormal with Paul & Ben Eno will feature some fascinating and little-known paranormal incidents that probably influenced Canadian and U.S. history.

Incidents include the alleged visit of an angel to George Washington at Valley Forge, Pennsylvania, during the seemingly hopeless winter of 1777 during the American Revolution, urging him not to give up and outlining the whole future of the United States.

Also included will be the story of Lord Dufferin, third Governor General of Canada, who insisted that his life was saved by a ghost...the invasion of colonial Massachusetts by an apparent paranormal army attributed to the devil, and which might have helped stimulate the Salem witchcraft hysteria...and much more.

The Sunday show will be pre-recorded, so send questions in advance to ben@behindtheparanormal.com.

Hear the Sunday show live on July 4 at 7 p.m. Eastern, 4 Pacific on CBS Radio HD3 channels: 104.1 WBMX-FM Boston, 99.5 WYCD/WMOC-FM Detroit and 96.5 KJAQ-FM Seattle. Excitement, plans build for the Enos' network TV show

Paul & Ben Eno, father-son co-hosts of Behind the Paranormal on CBS Radio, continue to work with producer/director Rob Cohen to launch their revolutionary 3-D national television show. If all goes as planned, this will be the first paranormal-themed show to be filmed entirely in 3-D and will be the first to explore and actually penetrate all aspects of the paranormal via parallel worlds using the Enos' "multiverse" theories and methods.

"This isn't 'ghost hunting' anymore," Paul says.

Filming for the pilot begins in August. Several networks already have expressed interest. Suggested titles include "Soul Searchers 3-D" and "Cosmic Journey 3-D."
