'Behind the Paranormal' marathon to feature 'near death experiences'

Jody Long, expert on NDEs

In nearly a year on the air, Behind the Paranormal with Paul & Ben Eno has never featured the phenomenon of "near death experiences" or NDEs. But that will change on Sunday, May 31, as our gallant father-son co-hosts welcome Jody Long to the weekly show. Jody, along with her husband, Dr. Jeffrey Long, is an expert in the intriguing phenomenon in which those revived after having been clinically dead report tunnels of light and meeting loved ones or religious figures.

The show will air at 7 p.m. ET, 4 p.m. PT on WOON

1240 AM in southeastern New England and globally on www.ONWorldwide.com.

Enos tackle ghost/UFO case in Conn.

With more clues that all paranormal phenomena result from the "interaction of multiple parallel worlds," as author and 39-year paranormal sleuth Paul Eno puts it, he and son Ben continue to tackle a bizarre case in central Connecticut that seems at the center of a "flap" involving both ghost phenomena and UFOs, including reports of armed troops and "black helicopters."

The father-son duo will pre-record a broadcast next month as they attempt to penetrate deeper into a secured area that reportedly contains an odd metal building and helipad. Watch for more information on this adventure and broadcast.
